

Frank Lichtanski Scholarship Golf Tournament

November 3, 2008
Rancho Cañada Golf Club
Monterey, California

Play golf at Rancho Cañada in beautiful Monterey, California while raising money to endow the American Public Transit Foundation's Frank J. Lichtanski Memorial Scholarship Fund. The scholarship will be used to send transportation professionals from small and medium sized transit agencies to attend the ENO Foundation's Center for Transit Leadership (CTL) program. The CTL program's goal is to prepare senior managers for tackling the challenges and assuming the responsibilities that come with serving in top leadership positions at agencies and companies in the transit industry.

The Golf Tournament will feature a hole in one, the longest drive and closest to the pin contests with many awards and prizes for golfers. If you are interested in sponsoring one of the events at the Golf Classic please call 916-920-8018. You can register for the tournament at www.calact.org or www.caltransit.org.

(Frank J. Lichtanski, long time General Manager/CEO of Monterey-Salinas Transit passed away June 9, 2005 leaving a 31-year legacy of providing outstanding transit service to the people of Monterey County. In memory of Frank's dedication to the public transit industry, his support of small and medium-sized transit agencies and commitment to educating future leaders in transit leadership, a scholarship fund has been established in his memory.)
