

TRANSIT

CALIFORNIA

Issue No. 1

January 2011

SAVE THE DATE!

Transit Lobby Day ... coming March 30

EXECUTIVE CORNER

A new twist on an old favorite

Joshua W. Shaw
Executive Director

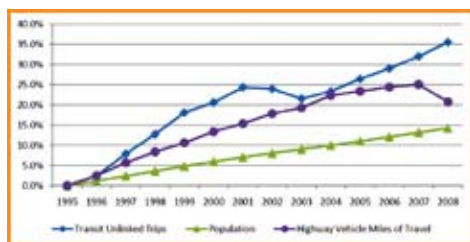

We are proud to present the new electronic version of Transit California. This new approach to the Association's signature publication gives us the opportunity to resume the magazine's traditional role in providing information of value and interest to our members in a new streamlined, cost-efficient manner

READ MORE >

BY THE NUMBERS

Since 1995, transit use has grown more than population or highway travel, rising at almost three times the rate of the U.S. population. Click the graphic below for details.

Source: APTA

Caltrain continues effort for suicide prevention

Since acquiring the rail right of way on the San Francisco Peninsula in the early 1990s, Caltrain has made safety and suicide prevention a top priority.

READ MORE >

Metro retires its last diesel bus

The second largest public transit operation in the nation, the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority (Metro) is now the largest transit agency in the world utilizing an entirely clean-fuel fleet.

READ MORE >

On board with ... Doran Barnes

The Executive Committee Chair discusses how the Association has evolved during his long-time membership, what the industry has learned from recent financial hardships, and how to close the gap between the desire for more transit options and California's car-centric culture.

READ MORE >

MEMBER NEWS LIBRARY

Reversing recent trends in transit, North County Transit District announces reduced fares and extended service hours. Golden Gate Ferry and Caltrain customers prepare to transition to streamlined ticketing processes. Get details on all that and more in our Member News Library.

READ MORE >